

Peninsula Enterprise.

ACCOMACK COURT HOUSE, VA.

SATURDAY, May 13, 1905.

Entered at the Postoffice at Accomack C. H., Va., as second-class matter.

A speech was made by Judge William H. Mann in the interest of his candidacy for Governor at Eastville on Monday and no one, who heard it, doubts that the liquor question is the main issue with him and that he is depending upon it for his election. There seems to have been little difference of opinion too among those who heard him that the speech "was unusually powerful both in his appeal against the saloon and his style of making it." That it made him votes too is beyond question and it is even claimed by his friends that it will give him a majority of the votes of that county. Judge Mann was also highly pleased with the manner in which his speech was received at Eastville and the promises of support which he has received since. He takes such a rosy view, in fact, it seems of the situation in both Accomack and Northampton that he is quoted as saying, that he would get a majority of the votes in both counties.

Judge Mann and his friends, however, are probably mistaken in thinking that he has everything his own way in either county. He made some votes but Mr. Swanson was so far in the lead that "the tide could not be turned from him" in so short a time in favor of anyone, unless he had done something to merit the disapproval of the voters. Every temperance man, of course, is pleased with the record of Judge Mann but no one can say aught against the record of Mr. Swanson in this respect, or in any other of which we are advised, and when the votes are counted in September, it will be found we believe, that the result will be largely in favor of Mr. Swanson.

The Eastern Shore Produce Exchange will enter upon its work this year, it is gratifying to be able to state, with all the differences among the divisions or otherwise satisfactorily adjusted and with everything in first-class working trim in the interest of the members of which it is composed. The organization it is safe to say, too, is stronger than it has ever been and has promise of increase in membership this year which will greatly strengthen it and help it along in its career of usefulness. That it will continue to live and flourish, of course, no one doubts, whatever dissensions may at times exist among the members in regard to salaries or in other matters incident to the government of same. It will live, because it means prosperity to our farmers and through them to everyone else, whatever his avocation. Its record in the past justifies that conclusion but it is with us to say to what extent the Exchange shall be a success. If those who have stood by it and supported it have accomplished so much, what might we not expect for the betterment of the farmers if it had the hearty co-operation of all of them?

The consolidation of the counties of Accomack and Northampton into one school district, with G. G. Joynes as superintendent of both counties, has caused some dissatisfaction in our sister county, and they have reason to feel aggrieved by the action of the State Educational Board, inasmuch as many smaller counties in the State were allowed to have their own superintendent as heretofore. We are not advised upon whose motion both counties were placed under the same management, but we do not believe such a movement originated in Accomack. But while we do not approve the consolidation we congratulate the parents and scholars of our sister county that in the appointment of Mr. Joynes as their superintendent, they will have one who will discharge all of his duties pertaining to their schools in a way which will be for the up-building of their school interests and which will be in every respect satisfactory to them.

The Fitzhugh Lee monument Association was formally organized in Richmond Friday, 5th. Its object is to erect a monument to Gen. Lee in Richmond. Mrs. Joseph Bryan was elected honorary president; Mrs. N. Y. Randolph, president; Miss Ruth Jennings, of Lynchburg, associate president; Mrs. Stephen Putney, and Mrs. E. E. Bolling, vice presidents; Mrs. J. E. Enders Robinson, recording secretary; Mrs. E. D. Taylor, and Mrs. Kate Winn, corresponding secretary. At a mass meeting it was determined to raise $30,000 to erect an equestrian statue to Gen. Lee, and it is the purpose to have it completed by 1907, if possible, and unveil it during the Jamestown Exposition. The contributions at the meeting, given voluntarily, amounted to $330.

Partial reports from the State at large indicate that the vote in the coming primaries for State and city officials will be fairly large. Saturday was the last day on which poll taxes could be paid, and all who failed to qualify by such payment will be debarred from participating in these primaries or in the general election. In some sections of the State the voters paid up pretty generally, but in others they showed indifference. It is understood that the white Republicans or nearly all of them, paid their poll taxes and were well organized in most districts.

The Illinois General Assembly has passed a bill appropriating $25,000 for the participation of Illinois in the Jamestown Exposition in 1907. A building is to be erected.

Resolutions of regret upon the death of Gen. Fitzhugh Lee were adopted Friday by a rising vote in the Massachusetts House of Representatives. Gen. Lee visited the Massachusetts Legislature just before his death in Washington.

Resolution Adopted by Grand Jury, Virginia:—At a Circuit Court held for the County of Accomack, on the 5th day of May, A. D., 1905.

The following resolution was adopted by the Grand Jury and presented to the Court, which resolution the Clerk is ordered to spread upon the Order Book of this Court, and have published in the "Peninsula Enterprise" and "Accomack News," for two consecutive weeks: "Whereas evidence has been given before the grand jurors in attendance upon the Court now sitting to the effect that certain parties have indulged in, and others have permitted on their premises, the playing of dominoes and other games for oranges, apples, candy, cigars and other articles of small value, We, the grand jurors aforesaid, do earnestly request and recommend that the Honorable Judge of this Court have notice given to the public through both 'Peninsula Enterprise' and 'Accomack News,' papers published in this county, stating that if the playing of such games for the articles aforesaid continue, that the grand jurors hereinafter empaneled by this Honorable Court be instructed to take cognizance of such acts."

To Whom It May Concern.

The National Audubon Society has been informed that the Supervisors of Accomack County have issued an order permitting the shooting of all kinds of snipe during the spring.

The game laws of Virginia only permits the shooting of robin snipe and English or Wilson's snipe during the spring months; it is illegal to kill any other kind of snipe.

This is to give notice that any person found killing or shooting at or disturbing any kind of snipe but those authorized by the State Game Law will be prosecuted.

A reward of $25 is hereby offered to any person furnishing evidence sufficient to secure a conviction for killing protected snipe.

All violations of the law must be reported, with evidence, to the National Association of Audubon Societies at its office, 525 Manhattan Avenue, New York City.

To Owners of Trotters on Eastern Shore of Virginia.

To settle what seems to be much talked of, much to do about nothing, in regards to the fastest trotter on the Eastern Shore of Virginia, will say there has been numerous rumors of this, that and other coming to me. I have offered no challenge to any, but will see that my mare, Lady Ruth, is backed from one to two thousand dollars against any trotter owned on the Eastern Shore of Virginia at present. If any race made, to be trotted over Gentlemen's Driving Park track, Baltimore, Md., any time within thirty days.

H. E. Mears, Keller, Va.

Free Literature For Farmers.

Several bulletins have recently been issued by the Experiment station and will be distributed free of cost to all farmers in the State who apply for them. One of these bulletins deals with "Apple Production in Virginia". The center of the apple industry is in the Valley, next comes Piedmont and then middle Virginia. The smallest number of apples are naturally produced in the Tidewater region. The report shows that the apple crop of 1903 amounted to 327,488 barrels, of which the Valley furnished 260,597 barrels.

Another publication treats of "Experiments with Cane Soda and Some Patent Washes Against the San Jose Scale." This is a very important publication because it shows how the most dreaded pest of the orchardist may be successfully held in check. It is interesting to know that the lime-sulphur wash proved more effective than any of the so-called patent washes, and it can be manufactured at home at a much smaller cost than any of the others.

The fourth publication treats of spraying with kerosene emulsion for the destruction of the Horn Fly. At certain seasons of the year these pests come in very large numbers, and prove most annoying to beef and dairy cattle. The method outlined in the bulletin for the destruction of the horn fly is comparatively simple and easy of adoption on stock farms, and it proved very effective in experiments made last summer at the Station.
